PLAYREADINGS

The next playreading will be on Wed 15th Feb at Pat Davis's house, Summerhill, Chalk Lane E H KT246TJ tel 281990

Do try and attend, these playreadings have had poor attendances of late and it's really unfair on the hosts and yours truly who has to come back from the coast a day early to organise these once very popular evenings.

We need volunteers to host future playreading evenings. Please contact Jack

S.W. CHRISTMAS BASH

Despite the rather glum faces in the photo,
A great time was had by all at the 'Billy'
As tradition has it, it was all rather loud!

AND FINALLY

A couple was invited to a swanky costume party. The Mrs. got a terrible headache and told her husband to go to the party alone..

He being a devoted husband protested, but she argued and said she was going to take some aspirin and go to bed and there was no need for his good time being spoiled by not going.

So he took his costume and away he went.

The wife, after sleeping soundly for about an hour, awakened without pain and, as it was still early, decided to go the party.

Since her husband did not know what her costume was, she thought she would have some fun by watching her husband to see how he acted when she was not with him.

She joined the party and soon spotted her husband cavorting around on the dance floor, dancing with every nice woman he could, and having a cuddle here and a little kiss there.

His wife sidled up to him and being a rather seductive girl herself, he left his current partner high and dry and devoted his time to the new girl that had just arrived. She let him go as far as he wished naturally, since he was her husband.

Finally, he whispered a little proposition in her ear and she agreed..

So off they went to one of the cars and had a lot of fun!

Just before unmasking at midnight, she slipped away, went home, put the costume away and got into bed, wondering what kind of explanation he would make for his behaviour.

She was sitting up reading when he came in, and she asked what kind of a time he had. He said: "Oh, the same old thing. You know I never have a good time when you're not there."

- "Did you dance much?"

- "I'll tell you, I never even danced one dance. When I got there, I met Pete, Bill Brown and some other fellows, so we went into the den and played cards all evening....

But you're not going to believe what happened to the fellow I loaned my costume to...."

This has been another 'Rush it out swiftly before the Panto starts ' production!
