A DOGS LIFE & HANDS ACROSS THE SEA 19-21 October 2017 Two one act plays with supper

A Dog's Life by Pam Valentine

Four dogs lie in cages in an animal shelter. A Dog's Life depicts the moment when a woman comes to the shelter and has to choose between the dogs — a choice that literally means life or death to the oldest, Ben..

Hands Across the Sea by Noël Coward

Lady Gilpin (Piggie) is so busy with social duties and gossip that she has no time for coherent thinking. She is set a flutter when her drawing room is suddenly filled with her husband's naval conferees, blueprint delivery boys and Mr. and Mrs. Wadhurst from the Far East, who flighty Piggie mistakes for the Rawlingsons. The Wadhursts overhear intimate phone conversations, are stumbled over, spilled upon and completely ignored before Piggie finally gets it straight.

We hope you enjoy your evening and as always look forward to your feedback.

On Thursday and Saturday the Main Course will be served before the performance of A Dog's Life
