PLAYREADINGS

Change of Date!

Due to the Committee having a meeting on the same date as our playreading was intended, it seemed prudent to change it. So the next playreading will be on Wed Sept 21st at Anna Price's house, Abbotswood, High Park Avenue, East Horsley, Surrey, KT24 5DF.tel. 07866532983

Do try and attend, these playreadings have had poor attendances of late and it's really unfair on the hosts and yours truly who has to come back from the coast a day early to organise these once very popular evenings.

AND FINALLY

Wife's Diary:

Tonight, I thought my husband was acting weird.

We had made plans to meet at a nice restaurant for dinner. I was shopping with my friends all day long, so I thought he was upset at the fact that I was a bit late, but he made no comment on it.

Conversation wasn't flowing, so I suggested that we go somewhere quiet so we could talk. He agreed, but he didn't say much.

I asked him what was wrong; He said, "nothing." I asked him if it was my fault that he was upset. He said he wasn't upset, that it had nothing to do with me, and not to worry about it.

On the way home, I told him that I loved him. He smiled slightly, and kept driving. I can't explain his behaviour. I don't know why he didn't say, "I love you, too."

When we got home, I felt as if I had lost him completely, as if he wanted nothing to do with me anymore. He just sat there quietly, and watched TV. He continued to seem distant and absent.

Finally, with silence all around us, I decided to go to bed. About 15 minutes later, he came to bed. But I still felt that he was distracted, and his thoughts were somewhere else. He fell asleep; I cried. I don't know what to do.

I'm almost sure that his thoughts are with someone else. My life is a disaster.

Husband's Diary:

A two-foot putt, who the hell misses a two-foot putt?

This has been another 'Rush it out swiftly before September arrives production!
