EDITORIAL

Whats happened to our loyal audiences? Whippets Manager, Julia McClung is getting jittery about the lack of tickets being sold for 'The Little Mermaid' especially Thursday evenings performance where there are 96 available tickets! 36 on Friday, 13 on Saturdays matinee and 70 available on the last Saturday night. Come on now, these are those wonderful shows that the Whippets always do which leaves everyone in the audience with a smile on their faces.

Also as director of the next Whips production the very funny 'Close to the Wind' which is in rehearsals right now, I would thoroughly recommend it as a great comedy. So can you please make a note in your diaries to come and see it 22-25 April

Please can I have volunteers for 2020 June up & maybe suggestions for plays to read.

It has been suggested that we have some of our playreadings in a local pub so other members of the public can join us...not absolutely sure how this would work but am willing to be guided!

AND FINALLY

Jeremy was a single fellow living at home with his father and working in the family business.

When he found out he was going to inherit a fortune when his sickly father died, he decided he needed a wife to share his fortune.

One evening at an investment meeting he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her natural beauty took his breath away. "I may look like just an ordinary man," he said to her, but in just a few years, my father will die, and I'll inherit £100 million."

Impressed, the woman obtained his business card and three days later, she became his stepmother...

Women are so much better at financial planning than men.

This has been a 'get it out swiftly to boost our play's' production
