Things have moved on!

Julea informs me that, The Little Mermaid only cancelled for Thursday night. Friday and Saturday nights & matinee postponed to 17th and 18th July with people retaining their tickets for equivalent day and time.

Due to the corona Virus The Whippets play The Little Mermaid had to be cancelled on Monday night but not before two hastily arranged dress rehearsal performances on that Monday evening for parents and supporters alike. Such a shame, I was lucky enough to attend and as usual had a smile constantly on my face as I saw a brilliant, colourful and delightful performance that will, I'm sure be very successful when it is proposed to be back on in July!

We also had to cancel the rehearsals for my play Close to the Wind and have hopefully postponed it for the Autumn slot in October so maybe not a waste of time..It was going so well!

It has been decided to cancel all future playreading evenings until further notice
